

DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES
UNIVERSITY OF DELHI, DELHI-110007

06 November 2020

NOTICE

An online interview for the project-based positions (temporary, for less than a year) in DST funded Project “Development of a novel single-stage bioremediation technology for azodye and aromatic amine aiming for industrial sustainability and environmental safety”. Details about the nature of the job and emolument are given below:

No. of posts: Technical Assistant-02

Emoluments: (i) Technical Assistant: INR18,960/- per month (consolidated)

Eligibility with:
desirable qualification Technical Assistant: Graduate in any discipline with following desirable experience. (i) Technical Assistant-01: Knowledge of database management, an experience of working in collaborative research projects, especially between industries, research institutes or ministries. (ii) Technical Assistant-02: Skill to undertake surveys, collect and analyse data. Ability to work using topo-sheets, GIS, and other similar software for data collection and analyses.

Please send you CV to vmध्येproject2020@gmail.com giving details of education, qualification, and experience with supporting evidence on or before 28 November 2020 (Saturday). Also, provide the email and mobile/phone number for communication. All the documents should be combined as one single file in PDF format.

Note: Short-listed candidates considering eligibility with desirable experience will be informed for the date and time of interview by email; and the link to join the online interview preferably scheduled for 30 November 2020 at Google Meet will be shared by email.

Principal Investigator

DST sponsored project “Development of environmental safety”

Department of Environmental Studies

University of Delhi, Delhi-110 007